Informes Eurydice

Apoyo al alumnado refugiado de Ucrania en la educación escolar y superior

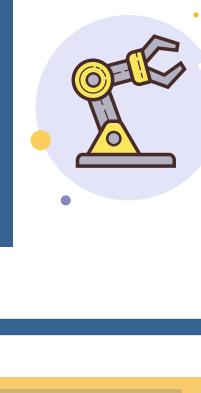

Los dos nuevos informes Eurydice se centran en algunas de las políticas y medidas desarrolladas por autoridades educativas de alto nivel en toda Europa que tienen como objetivo ayudar a los centros educativos a integrar a los estudiantes ucranianos. Incluyen las políticas y medidas que los sistemas educativos europeos han establecido específicamente para los estudiantes ucranianos, y políticas y medidas dirigidas a todos los estudiantes recién llegados y a los migrantes anteriores al conflicto actual.

Traducciones informes Eurydice

Hacia la equidad y la inclusión en la enseñanza superior en Europa

A lo largo de sus diez capítulos, el informe se centra en la equidad y la inclusión en la educación superior en Europa. Analiza el nivel actual de alineación de los sistemas educativos con los diez Principios y Directrices acordados por el Espacio Europeo de Educación Superior.

Salarios y complementos del profesorado y los directores de los centros educativos en Europa 2019/20

El resumen comparativo examina los salarios reglamentarios del profesorado y las perspectivas de aumentos salariales a lo largo de su carrera. También analiza las diferencias entre las retribuciones de los diferentes niveles educativos.

Próximos informes Eurydice

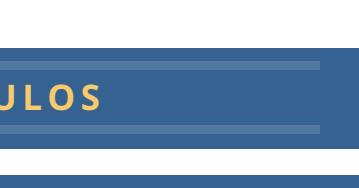

La enseñanza de la informática en educación escolar en Europa

El próximo informe Eurydice examina la ciencia computacional como disciplina en la educación escolar, ya sea enseñada como una materia diferenciada o integrada en otras materias. El análisis se basa en cómo los currículos europeos, a partir de varios marcos curriculares y de competencias ampliamente utilizados, cubren las áreas más comunes de la ciencia computacional.

Eurydice Reports

Supporting refugee learners from Ukraine in schools and higher education in Europe 2022

The two new Eurydice reports focus on the policies and measures developed by high-level education authorities across Europe that help schools integrate Ukrainian students. They include the policies and measures that the European educational systems have established specifically for Ukrainian students, and policies and measures aimed at all newly arrived students that existed before the current conflict.

Eurydice Reports Translations to Spanish

Towards Equity and Inclusion in Higher Education in Europe

This Eurydice report focuses on the topic of equity and inclusion in higher education. It analyses the current level of alignment of European higher education systems with the ten Principles & Guidelines agreed by all the European Higher Education Area (EHEA) countries as a blueprint to carry the commitment of improving the social dimension forward.

Teachers' and School Heads' Salaries and Allowances in Europe 2019/20

The comparative overview examines the statutory salaries for beginning teachers, and the prospects for salary increases throughout their career. It also looks into salary differences across education levels, usually linked to different qualification requirements.

Upcoming Eurydice Reports

Informatics Education at School in Europe

The forthcoming Eurydice report examines computational science as a discipline in school education, whether taught as a separate subject or integrated into other subjects. The analysis centres on how European curricula cover the most common areas of computational science based on various widely used curriculum and competence frameworks.
